

Godgirls In Motion

"On the Road Again" - May 15-16, 2009 - Kalahari Resort

We are excited to bring the Godgirls In Motion Christian women's conference to the Sandusky, Ohio area once again, May 15-16, 2009. With 1,000 women excited and sharing their enthusiasm with others about last year's conference, the 2009 event presents a tremendous opportunity for businesses to partner with us to make GGIM even more exciting.

In a world that is broken and with so many searching, the Godgirls In Motion event invites women from all walks of life and denominations to share a weekend together and discover God's purpose for their lives. We want to encourage them, inspire them and help to prepare them to boldly step out and make a difference in the world around them. We are ready to heed the call of God and together with great speakers, comedians and musicians we are presenting the Gospel with humor, tenderness and an invitation to all women to be a part of something that will be forever life changing.

Together with others who have a passion to share the Good News, we want to become those whom God will send, fishers of men in a modern world. As we continue to bring this conference to North Central Ohio, we look forward to what God will reveal to us for the future and who He will bring to come alongside of us in this journey.

Having you on board will certainly make a difference!
